THE VETERAN'S
CHRISTMAS TALE

I NEVER think of Christmas but I think of the one I spent when on detached service down in Virginia in 1862. I was a captain then, and, being on special service, I happened to be temporarily attached to the command of General Cox at Gauley Bridge, Va. I was warmly welcomed as I arrived on Christmas eve and on the first morning of the new year the first of many of the men had received for nine months. The command was the first Kentucky, and a number of fellows they were. Captain Hunt invited me to share his tent and as we sat smoking together he told me the story of his life. He said, "I was a boy when I was first taken to the army. I was a boy when I was first taken to the army. I was a boy when I was first taken to the army."

The pickets are driven in, and Captain Hunt as he stood in the tent opening with a turkey leg in one hand, and the next moment he was ordered to take his company, make a reconnaissance and report the strength of the enemy. The country about Gauley Bridge was thickly covered with scrubby pine and cedar. Pushing through this until he obtained a position commanding the road by which the Confederates must advance, the captain halted his men. He sent a few men in advance as scouts, and then he and I and a corporal went forward about twenty yards. The scouts, bewildered by the underbrush, got into our rear, and as soon as we heard men advancing in our front Hunt at once said it was his scouts returning. "That turkey isn't cold yet, and we'll finish it when we get back."

In place of our scouts the advancing party was the advance guard of Confederates. Hunt recognized the officer in command as Captain Loughborough, and the three of us jumped to work. But Loughborough, who was in advance of his men, had caught sight of Hunt, and, with a volley of bullets, he cried:

"Come out, you — Yankee, and he shot." As he cried this he covered Hunt's hiding place with a long Mis-assigned rifle and fired. Hunt had snatched the corporal's ordinary snuff box, and so quickly and he aimed that both shots rang out at the same instant. I was looking at the whole thing through the branches of a living cedar, and the two men were not more than fifty yards apart. The Confederate dropped in a heap and never moved, and at once a fog was poured into the captain's brain, but not a bullet hit him. Hunt's men, supposing that the three had just been killed, beat a retreat and made good their escape. They were surrounded and captured. At first the Confederates were so friendly to the Yankees on Hunt for the death of a favorite officer, but the story he displayed and his personal goodness while in their power won their regard. When asked by his parole he refused, saying: "You fellows spoiled my Christmas dinner that I and my friends here had just sat down to, and I propose to finish it and finish it if I can. You get the parole from me." I and the corporal gave our parole, but Captain Hunt was not clear through. He was bound and, after marching with our guard through several towns of Virginia, we brought up at Richmond and were thrown into Libby. We never heard who ate our Christmas turkey. A. ## Women's Secrets

There is not a woman in the United States who has perhaps heard more of the secrets of the body than any other woman in the country. These secrets are not secrets of guilt or shame, but the secrets of suffering, and they have been confided to Dr. R. V. Pierce in the hope and expectation of advice and help. That few of these women have been disappointed in their expectations is proved by the fact that ninety-eight per cent. of all women treated by Dr. Pierce have been absolutely and altogether cured. Such a record would be remarkable if the cases treated were numbered by hundreds only. But when that record applies to the treatment of more than half-a-million women, in a practice of over 40 years, it is phenomenal, and entitles Dr. Pierce to the gratitude accorded him by women, as the first of specialists in the treatment of women's diseases.

Every sick woman may consult Dr. Pierce by letter, absolutely without charge. All replies are mailed, sealed in perfectly plain envelopes, without any printing or advertising whatever. Write without fear, as with our free, to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Dr. R. V. Pierce, Pres., Buffalo, N. Y.

Tying Up the Gifts.

AT LAST the time has come for making ready the gifts. What pleasant work it is! And yet, it is tiresome, there is something away from that fact. When the last package is tied, the last gift of holly tucked in, one is apt to be aching all over.

If a spare room is available it is best to get all the paraphernalia together in it. If not, find some place in which you can work undisturbed, if possible, and where, if you have to leave the task for an hour or so, everything can remain just as you leave it until your return.

Get the tissue paper, the manila paper and the heavier paper, if you need it, in separate piles. Have various sized boxes handy and some exterior ready if breakables are to be wrapped. String, twine, gold and silver cord, red or green ribbon—whatever may be your favorite for tying up the packages—have in plenty.

It is well to have the cards written beforehand. If each card is written on the package is tied, the bottle of ink is liable to be upset when the package is tied.

The scissors you need for cutting paper and string fast to you. Otherwise it will be a frantic hunt for them every few minutes.

Nearly everyone has her own favorite way for wrapping gifts. But soft, white tissue paper, gay ribbon, stickers, a sprig of holly—one or all seem essential to make the gift look the spirit of the season.

Some like to wrap packages so as to add a spice of fun to their opening. A number of wrappings with tantalizing or funny messages written on each covering is one popular method.

One of the cleverest ways is the use of the "nest" of boxes. These boxes are covered with holly paper and fit one into the other. As each box is opened, instead of the expected gift is another box. At last, of course, the gift is arrived at, but one is surrounded by a mass of boxes by the time the gift is discovered. This method creates a lot of amusement.

TRAVELING MAN DIES ON TRAIN NEARING NEWARK

E. W. Miller, a traveling man, whose home is in Mansfield, O., died suddenly on the train coming into Newark from Columbus, Thursday noon.

Mr. Miller is a representative of the Ashman-Taylor company, which handles farm implements, and left Columbus on the B. & O. train which arrives here at 12:25. One of the passengers on the car noticed his head drop forward and thinking he was ill, fastened to his side. He called for a physician, and Dr. C. J. Acheson of Delaware happened to be in the same coach, but before he reached the station man's side he was dead, death coming without any warning what-so-ever.

The body was brought to Newark and taken from the train by Chief Deputies and Jones. The family, including a wife and daughter, living in Mansfield, was informed and the body was shipped for burial.

To Rid Themselves Of Count Must Part With Many Dollars

Chicago, Dec. 22—Just 100,000 hard American dollars from the "wad" of Steel Millionaire Martin Killgallen will be necessary to enable that magnate to bid farewell to Count Jacques Alexander Von Mourik de Beaufort, who married Miss Irma Killgallen, according to stories of negotiations now under way here between the rich papa and his noble son-in-law.

One of the articles of the settlement said to be demanded by the count is that his papa-in-law issue a statement formally denying reports that he, the count, was the cause of his countess pitching down the stairs of the Killgallen residence through which she has for weeks been confined in a local hospital.

Recipes for Dec. 23, 1910.
Cauliflower Purée. Trim one good sized cauliflower and place head downward, in cold salted water for half an hour. Drain, put in a saucepan, cover with boiling water, add one scant teaspoonful of salt and boil until tender. Cook one heaping teaspoonful of chopped onion in butter for five minutes without browning; add the cauliflower, cut fine, and stir over the fire for five minutes longer; add one-half of a teaspoonful of salt, a dash of cayenne, a sprig of parsley and three cupfuls of rich milk. Cook gently for fifteen minutes, rub through a puree sieve and return to the fire; add one tablespoonful of butter and one tablespoonful of flour rubbed to a paste and stir until smooth and slightly thickened. Taste to see that it is sufficiently seasoned and simmer five minutes longer.

Lamb Cutlets in Aspic. Lay in a saucepan six slices of fat bacon, a sliced diced turnip, a sliced onion, a sliced carrot, a little grated nutmeg and a few sprigs of parsley; then on the top lay six lamb cutlets, add half a cupful of sherry, wine and enough stock to cover. Put on the lid and cook slowly till the cutlets are tender. Remove the saucepan from the fire and let the contents cool. Remove the cutlets when they are cold and press them between two plates. Drain the liquor and dissolve in it one and a half heaping tablespoonfuls of powdered gelatine. When it begins to harden pour a layer of it into a dish. Lay cutlets closely together on top. Allow to remain on ice for three hours. Mix one pint of cooked peas with half a pint of the liquor or liquid aspic, pour, set on ice to harden. Unmold the cutlets and cut them out with a pointed shaped cutter. Arrange cutlets in a circle on a very cold dish and put the jellied peas in the center.

Stone In Bladder Removed Without Surgical Operation

In the Spring of 1901, I was confined to my bed with kidney trouble and I thought that I would never recover. I took a lot of medicine but did not realize any benefit from anything. I finally saw Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root advertisement and sent for a sample bottle and thought the sample bottle helped me, so I bought more of the medicine from my Druggist, and after using a few bottles discharged a very large stone from my bladder. After passing this stone my health was very much improved and I have been able to continue my business without any serious sickness.

J. L. KNOWLES, Headland, Ala.
Personally appeared before me this 8th day of September, 1909, J. L. Knowles, who subscribed the above statement and made oath that the same is true in substance and in fact.
J. W. WHIDDON, Notary Public.
Prove What Swamp-Root Will Do For You. Send to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. It will convince anyone. You will also receive a booklet of valuable information, telling all about the kidneys and bladder.
When writing, be sure and mention this paper. Regular price, 50c and one dollar size bottles for sale at all drug stores.

COLUMBUS "REPS" BADLY BEATEN

But They Gave Newark A. M. C. A. A Hard, Fast Game—Home Team Plays the Visitors Off Their Feet.

The score was 66 to 13. The game was, however, faster than the score indicates.

The visitors went on the floor at 3:20 for a short practice. Their work was followed with some degree of curiosity to determine the probable strength of the game they would put up. On the whole they made an excellent impression and the crowd settled itself to await an exciting and fast game.

Within 30 seconds after the whistle was blown Livingston tossed the first ball into the Columbus basket. The game became fast and exciting. Edwards, the new center for Newark, proved himself to be a better player than Black. He played center on Chicago University last year. Newark's backs played a brilliant defensive game and blocked many plays. Reinbold and Woodward, in particular, did better than they ever did before. Lindemood was always close on his man, blocking and taking the ball away from his opponent. The work of the home team was nothing short of marvelous. Lucas for Newark played a brilliant game and shot several beautiful baskets. Woodward also made several good baskets. Expecting to meet a very fast game, Livingston put his men through some hard, grueling practice and had them keyed up to a high pitch. The result was shown. Columbus was fast but Newark Y. M. C. A. was faster.

For Columbus, McCullough and Steine played the best game. Newark Y has not lost a game in two years and it looks like a clean record this year. The line-up:

|  |            |
|--|------------|
| Edwards  | McCullough |
| Livingston   | Brown      |
| Reinbold   | Lindemood  |
| Woodward   | Weaver     |
| Lucas  | Whitehead  |
| Time of halves—20 minutes.   |            |
| Field goals—Edwards 9, Livingston 5, Woodward 8, Lucas 6, Lindemood 1, Brown 1, Moore 1, McCullough 1, Steine 2. |            |
| Foul goals—Edwards 1, Livingston 1, Woodward 1, Lucas 1, Brown 2, Steine 5.                                      |            |

OHIO BRIEFS

Bellevue—On the day that John Lautenschlager, Big Four engine inspector, died here, his aged mother, Mrs. Michael Lautenschlager, aged 80, fell down stairs at her home in Galion, and received fatal injuries.

Sidney—The agent who came from Washington to select a site for the postoffice building, has accepted the offer of the properties of David Oldham, Dr. M. F. Hussey and E. W. Stowell at $20,000, on the corner of North street and Ohio avenue, long known as the Dr. Conklin corner.

Delaware—Prof. Wm. H. Critzer, supervisor of music in the Delaware public schools, is seriously ill with Bright's disease. Prof. Critzer came here from Galion four months ago.

Sandusky—Peter Farrell, aged 25 years, a farm hand, committed suicide by swallowing carbolic acid. He was morose over his recent divorce from his wife and for a week he had avoided all acquaintances. His body was found in his house by a mail carrier.

Ripley—Mrs. Elizabeth Herman, aged 91, was found dead in bed by her daughter. She leaves eight children.

Circleville—Amas Beach, 84, for many years engaged in the grocery business and for over 30 years agent for the Adams Express Company, died suddenly.

Kenton—John Jones has been arrested, charged with perjury, by the humane society officer. On Saturday Jones secured a license to marry Grace Strahm, swearing that she was 16 years of age. Later it developed that she is only 14. Jones is 32.

Ottawa—B. C. Lemaster, 43, living in Perry township, was hauling a load of fodder. His horse became frightened, ran away and threw him to the ground, mashing the top of his head. He died from the injuries.

Belmont—Carl Burkett, 22, was shot through the body while husking corn in his father's field. Dr. Bionfield township. Burkett is in a precarious condition at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Burkett.

Daddy's Bedtime Story

What the Teakettle Taught

James Was Busy Thinking

JACK and Evelyn thought this was a very queer tale for a story. "But it is a true story," said daddy, and the two, which the teakettle taught, was one of the most important lessons ever learned by man. Why, whenever you ride on a railroad or sail on a steamboat or whenever any one of a great many important things is done it is due to the lesson which the teakettle taught to a little boy in Scotland almost 200 years ago.

"The name of the boy was James Watt, and he was a bright, serious little fellow. He was like you, Jack, in one thing, he was always asking questions and wanting to know all about things that made them go and why they did so and so. One day James was sitting at his grandmother's kitchen. He was looking at the teakettle, which was hanging on a chain in the great fireplace over a hot fire.

"As young James watched the pot in the water within it, he saw it boil. Soon it boiled at a great rate, the lid began to rattle and shake, and the steam commenced to pour out of the kettle's spout. Grandmother asked, 'What is in the kettle?'

"'Nothing, child, only water,' said the old lady.

"'But what is it that lifts the lid and makes it rattle and shake?'

"'Why, James, that is only the steam that comes out of the spout.'

"'But, grandma, you said there was nothing in the kettle but water. Where does the steam come from?'

"'From the water, lad, said the grandmother. 'Steam always comes from water when you heat it. But there, don't ask me any more questions now. I am busy.'

"James was busy thinking. He said to himself, 'If the steam can lift the heavy lid of the teakettle it must be very strong. And if a small amount of steam in the teakettle can lift the lid, a larger amount of steam should be able to lift other things that are more heavy. And so perhaps the steam can be made to lift things for people so that they will not have to work so hard.'

"It took James many years to work out his ideas. But he kept thinking, and thinking about steam and its power until in time he invented the world's first steam engine. He found that by heating the water in a great boiler and holding the steam in a cylinder, which is only a sort of a round box, it could be made to do much work. And all the world's locomotives and other engines are the result of the little boy's thinking what it was that made the lid of his grandmother's teakettle move."

On Friday, decorations were being put up and a proportionately large demand. Although Newark merchants are being kept busy, Mrs. Cochran is recovering. 22-2f

Mrs. Will C. Cochran, who was seriously injured on Sunday, is resting quite comfortably today and will soon be completely recovered. Mrs. Cochran sustained the injury of her right leg in North Fourth street Sunday morning and since then had endured a large dose of pain. She required three stitches to close the wound and was unconscious for a fall and did not recover from the commotion since until five Sunday night. 22-2f

Playwright in City. Walter Brown, the author, known for the Shubert's show, "The City," is in Newark for a few days making arrangements for the presentation of that attraction at the Andriodine theatre during the holidays. Mr. Brown is himself a playwright of some prominence, having been the author of "Simple Simon Simple." "Little Miss" and several small sketches. "The City" has been creating a sensation in every city where it has been seen and is a fitting monument to the memory of Clyde Fitch its author. 22-2f

AMUSEMENTS

HYDE'S THEATER PARTY.
Hyde's Theater Party played to a good sized and appreciative audience on Wednesday evening. The attraction was "The Texan." The bill proved an interesting little western story with some good live lines and interesting situations.

The company is offering tonight, "Still Waters Run Deep," which will also be repeated at Friday's matinee.

"DANIEL BOONE ON THE TRAIL."
Carrying real Indians and real wolves and bears in order to give a play the desired atmosphere is going the limit. That is what is being done by the manager of the "Daniel Boone on the Trail" Co., that comes to the Auditorium Theatre on Tuesday, Dec. 27th. The story of the play is romantic in theme and thrilling in situations. The many exciting incidents that occur during the life of this famous pioneer have given the author ample room to elaborate on. The burning of Boone's home by the Indians closes the first act of this great drama of pioneer days. The second act finds Boone and his brave wife, Elizabeth Zane, homeless in the mountains. The many daring escapes and the hardships endured by them makes the story of Daniel Boone strong in sentiment.

THE AL. G. FIELD GREATER MINSTRELS.

Will be at the Auditorium for Two Performances, Wednesday, Dec. 22nd, Matinee and Night.

The attraction at the Auditorium on Dec. 22nd, will be the Al. G. Field Greater Minstrels now making their twenty-fifth consecutive annual tour and celebrating the quarter-century-marking year of its existence; in honor of this silver jubilee year, Mr. Al. G. Field offers a production of far greater merit than anything heretofore produced by this most successful manager, whose name has become a household word throughout the land. The Al. G. Field Greater Minstrel show this year offers a series of positive scenic innovations and surprises; more and better singers; more real novelties by way of splendid and gorgeous specialties than has ever graced an organization bearing Mr. Field's name; which, considering this man's reputation as a producer of minstrel, is saying much.

"THE CITY."

The following speech of George Rand, Jr., in Clyde Fitch's wonderful play, "The City," which will be seen here at the Auditorium Theatre on Thursday, Dec. 23, sounds the keynote of Mr. Fitch's theme in this great drama. "A man may live in a small place all his life, deceive the whole place and himself into thinking he has got all the virtues, when at heart he's a hypocrite; but the village gives him no chance to be found out—to prove to his fellows—the small town is too easy! But the city! A man comes to the gate of it and knocks. She opens her gates and takes him in, and she stands him in the middle of the market place and strips him naked of all his disguises and of all his hypocrisies and she paints his ambition on her fences and lights up her sky-scrapers with it—what he wants to do and what he thinks he is. And then she says to him: 'Make good if you can, but to hell with you.' And what is in him comes out to clothe his nakedness, and to the city he can't lie. I know, because I tried."

"LENA RIVERS."

The dramatization of Mrs. Mary J. Holmes' "Lena Rivers," which is finding so much favor, and which is to be seen at the Auditorium Theatre on Saturday, Dec. 24th, is said to be cleverly arranged. Of course, "Lena" is the central figure, and around her group all the characters of the book. There is dear old granny Nichols, pretty and jealous Caroline, the old maid Nancy Seaworthy, and Durward Belmont, the handsome young Southerner. Then there are the two arch plotters, Mrs. Graham and Miss Livingston; the witty old negro Rastus and his wife, Aunt Debbie; the unhappy, yet without loving John Graham and Anna, the pretty sister of Caroline.

OLD-FIELD-JOHNSON RACE.

The Empire theatre, on South Park Place is offering its patrons a big feature film for the first three days of the holiday week. Mr. Rathbun has secured the film of the Barney Oldfield and Jack Johnson automobile race. Johnson made amends by his success as a pugilist thought to his failure on the championship of Oldfield and to carry off the honors as a race car but in Oldfield he met his Waterloo. The pictures are said by many who saw the race to be the best of the series to be most realistic and complete. The race is said to have taken over a whole country and was witnessed by thousands.

The pictures will be seen at the theatre, Dec. 23, 24 and 25.

TEN DAYS FOR BITING THUMB OF HIS WIFE

Mayor Ankele Sentences Man to Jail for Abusing Helpmate. Quiet in Police Circles.

Husbands, if you bite your wife's thumb nearly off her hand, it will get you ten days in jail for the first offense, and goodness only knows what for the second.

Such is the precedent that was established in the mayor's police court hearing of Ed. Offenbacher of 196 South Second street, Thursday morning. It was charged by Mrs. Offenbacher that Edward, while in a fit of anger, did grab her, throw, thrust and forcefully recline her upon the floor and then and there did maliciously and with intent to hurt and wound, bite her thumb until it bled. The complainant brought her thumb into court as an exhibit in the case.

Mayor Ankele delivered a lecture to Edward to the effect that the next time he tried to make a meal of his wife's thumb or finger or otherwise assaulted her he would get considerable more than ten days.

The young man caught in the Schimpf grocery on Hudson avenue early Wednesday morning was released Wednesday night on bond of $200 for his appearance at the mayor's court Thursday afternoon. Bond was furnished by the young man's father.

JUDGES ARE SCORING THE CHICKS TODAY

Prizes Will Be Awarded Exhibitors at Poultry Show Today--Great Interest Manifested.

One of the largest and best poultry shows ever held in Licking county is now on in full blast in the Brennan hall, corner of Fourth and West Main streets, where the Corn Show is also being held. The officers of the association are President, T. D. Keys, and secretary and treasurer, T. E. Adams. The secretary informed an Advocate reporter that an unusually large number of the finest breeds of chickens are on exhibition and that the interest manifested is very great. Besides the poultry show there is a fine display of corn, many of the finest varieties being represented, and the competition for the prizes is keen.

Thursday morning the judges commenced the work of scoring the birds. While the work will be arduous the judges hope to finish today. The judges are Phil Phil of Canal Dover, and Al A. Stream of Mt. Vernon. Twelve fine silver cups, on exhibition in the show window of Pratt's jewelry store, will be given away as prizes, and the competition is something fierce. The judges are experts in their profession, and the best birds will win the honors and the prizes offered.

A fine exhibition of canary birds that is also on exhibition, is attracting considerable attention.

The prizes will be awarded this evening.

INDIGESTION

Relief in Five Minutes and Permanent Cure or Money Back.

When Evans' drug store states that he has a remedy that only costs 50 cents and is guaranteed to cure any man or woman who suffers from food fermentation, or money back, what are the poor stomach sufferers in Newark and vicinity going to do about it?

Food fermentation causes belching, sour stomach, gas, flatulence, heartburn and that lump of lead feeling as you probably know.

The name of this most remarkable stomach prescription is MI-O-NA. Most people call them MI-O-NA stomach tablets, because they know that there is no remedy so good for indigestion or stomach disorders. Here is one opinion:

"I have been troubled with indigestion for more than a year. I bought one box of MI-O-NA and it cured me. Now I would not be without a box in the house for $5.00. It saves a lot of doctor bills when you can be cured for 50 cents." Arthur Sederquest, 6 Nichols St., Wakefield, Mass.

MI-O-NA stomach tablets cost 50 cents a box at Evans' drug store, and druggists everywhere, and money back if they don't cure.

DIRECT VOTE TO NAME SENATORS

Change in System of Election Is Coming Rapidly.

"WE EDITORS" IN CONGRESS.

Victor Murdock Says He Could Organize Newspaper Staff From Members. War Scare Talk and Carnegie Peace Fund Are Neither Taken Seriously. Democrats to Be Conservative?

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Dec. 22.—[Special.]—A few years ago almost everybody cheered at the proposition for an amendment to the constitution providing for the election of senators by direct vote of the people, and yet we are now approaching that important change in our political system at a rapid rate. It may not come during this session of congress, but the growth of sentiment in favor of the change has been such as to indicate that the day may not be far distant when the states if they choose can elect their senators by the people instead of by the state legislatures. The fact that a large number of states indirectly allow the people to choose their senators and that several states have found a method to circumvent the constitution is one of the strong arguments in favor of the proposed amendment. A short time ago the observer of legislative conditions in Washington would have said that such a change was impossible. And now it is almost certain.

"We Editors" in Congress.

It is not generally known that the newspaper men are coming to the front as lawmakers, but such is the fact. Victor Murdock says he could organize a newspaper force in the two houses, but they would not all be like the Auburn haired man of the Wichita Eagle. At present among the editorial fraternity in the senate may be included Bristow of Kansas, Lafe Young of Iowa, Dixon of Montana, La Follette of Utah, Snoot of Utah, with Stephenson of Wisconsin a newspaper owner. In the house there are Hitchcock of Nebraska, Murdock of Kansas, Scott of Kansas, Glass of Virginia, Edwards of Kentucky, Johnson of Kentucky, Barnhardt of Indiana, Cox of Ohio, as well as several others. The next congress will have a dozen more.

An Arkansas Economist.

Congressman Macon of Arkansas appeared in a front seat with his ever ready point of order against increases of salaries and other little items in the appropriation bills. Macon has won a reputation as an economist in small things and believes in taking care of the pence as well as the pounds. It takes very fine work to get a salary increase past his point of order.

Peace and War.

It is really too much to ask the person who actually knows to become very serious either over the dangers which Secretary Dickinson, General Wood and Congressman Hobson see before us or the $10,000,000 which Mr. Carnegie recently gave to promote the cause of peace. Of course the United States is unprepared for war, as are all peace-loving nations. We have no desire to fight other nations, and why should other nations want to fight us? Not expecting war, we have not an army of a million men ready to march at a moment's notice. The ten million peace donation is interesting to those who recollect that the millions of tons of steel that have gone into battle ships, armor, armament, big guns, shells and implements of war helped to create that $10,000,000 as well as many other millions. People are not going to take very seriously either the war scare or the great peace fund. Without a real cause there will not be a war, and with a real cause the ten millions for peace would not prevent it.

Swanson in Early.

Before he had been a member of the senate ten days Senator Swanson reported a bill and had it passed. It provides for a monument to General William Campbell of the Revolutionary war to be erected at Abingdon, Va. Swanson was made a member of the library committee and found this Virginia bill among the files at its first meeting. In having it reported and passed he scored as one of the first new senators to accomplish results.

A South Dakota Opinion.

"In my opinion the next Democratic candidate for president will be a conservative," remarked Congressman Burke of South Dakota, "and the Republican candidate will be a radical."

He was standing within sight of President Taft at the time, and his hearers wondered whether he thought Mr. Taft would not again be nominated or whether the president might not then be known as a radical. As there has been considerable talk about the manner in which the president has been making friends with the insurgents of late it was surmised that Burke believed that Mr. Taft would be radical enough to lead the Remo- thians in 1912.

Hasn't Got Horns.

Senator La Follette was invited to attend a business men's banquet and make a speech. "I should be very glad to do so if my health will permit," he replied. "I like to go to affairs where there are big business men, for I want to show them that I haven't got horns."

WHAT THEY WANT FOR CHRISTMAS

It has been suggested that there are possibly those prominent Newark citizens who have a burning desire for something desirable in their stockings on Christmas, but as most great men are modest, the Advocate has endeavored to learn the wishes of these persons from outside sources and herewith publishes them, with the hope that good old Santa will provide.

Mayor Ankele—Stone and a place to have it cracked.

President W. D. Fulton of the city council—A solution of the gas problem.

Other councilmen—An executive session, excluding the press.

Police Chief Hind—A strong box in which to keep secrets from reporters.

Police Captain Swank—Another reward.

Fire Chief Bausch—Solitude, with plenty to read, eat and smoke, and the latest auto improvements.

Police Patrolmen—Shorter beats and more help.

Service Director Christian—More clerks, more room, a week's vacation.

Safety Director Scott—A mystery to solve.

City Auditor Whitcomb—An automatic calculator and another day in Elkdom.

City Clerk McCarthy—A stenographer and a reading glass.

City Engineer Wells—A few more subway plans to draw.

County Clerk of Courts Larason—A short order system for answering questions.

Court Stenographer Cooper—A lock to that dingbusted jury room and a key to go with it.

Newark Board of Trade—A sock full of booms and boosts for Newark.

Owing to lack of space, it is found impossible to list any other citizens at this particular time, so for the sake of safety the Advocate requests Santa just to take care of the wants of everybody as nearly as possible and let 'em wait until next Christmas for the rest.

Handkerchiefs, scarfs—STEPHAN.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES

Christmas day (actual) comes on Sunday, but Christmas day (legal) on Monday. The Y. M. C. A. program for Sunday will include only one meeting, a combination meeting of boys and men at 3 p. m.

A special illustrated Christmas address by Rev. Mr. Denney and a film of moving pictures will be parts of the hour of informal service. All boys over 14 years of age are welcome. Boys younger than that are asked not to come, for a successful meeting of boys without restriction of age is not possible. After the holidays the gym club will get busy and begin training for public work, both at the gymnasium later on and for a concert in the spring.

Owing to the condition of the association building for the last week it has not been possible to use all of it. The alterations will be completed about New Year's day and a big New Year's open house given. On Monday the building will be closed all day and from then until New Year's a part of it will not be available for use because of fresh paint. Every friend of the work is invited to get ready for a trip through the building on New Year's day or soon after. The first floor lobby is being transformed into a place of much beauty.

NEWARK'S CHANCE TO LAND SHOPS LOOKS BRIGHT

Baltimore, Md., Dec. 22. — General Manager A. W. Thompson of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad company, when asked by the Advocate correspondent regarding the report that the B. and O. company would erect two million dollar shops at Newark, Ohio, employing 2,000 or more people, said that the company had not definitely decided the matter. Mr. Thompson said that at present he can not say where the shops will be located. Other officials, however, as wired yesterday, stated that the shops will be built in Newark. The matter is now receiving the attention of the officers of the railway company and in railway circles it is conceded that Newark has a splendid prospect owing to its location and other conditions. The advantages of Newark for this big improvement have been presented to the company by the Newark Board of Trade which is making every effort to land the prize for Newark.

QUANTITY OF IODINE TAKEN BY YOUNGSTER

Ran to Mother, Telling Her He Was Going to Die—Hard Work of Physicians Saved the Boy's Life.

Only the thoughtfulness of "Buster," the three year old son of Dr. and Mrs. W. L. Jackson saved the child's life Thursday morning after he had swallowed an amount of iodine. Emetics were administered at once and the child is now out of danger.

Dr. Jackson had been using iodine as a mouth wash and left the bottle on a table in the living room. Thursday morning the doctor left the house to go to a store to attend to an errand and Mrs. Jackson was called from the room. "Buster" seeing the bottle was playing with it and then decided to ascertain the contents. He took quite a mouthful of the poison and had scarcely swallowed it when he began to feel ill. Realizing that he was sick he hastened to his mother, crying, "Mother, get father, I am going to die."

Mrs. Jackson, severely frightened, caught up the child and asked him what he had been doing, and told her of the medicine he had taken from the bottle. She immediately sent for Dr. Jackson and he reached home in a few minutes and at once administered emetics and called in Dr. P. H. Cosner to assist him. They used a stomach pump and worked with the child for two hours. The boy did not go into convulsions but became limp and the parents despaired of his life for a time. The little had seemed to have taken from thirty to sixty drops when the regular dose allowed for an adult is from two to five drops. The mouth and stomach is in a very bad condition as the result of the poison and the emetics.

The child is still very sick and quite weak but it is thought that all the poison has been removed and that he will be completely recovered in a few days.

MINISTER KNOCKED DOWN BY EDITOR

Zanesville, Dec. 22.—Rev. A. M. Courtenay, pastor of the Grace Methodist church, the largest congregation in this city, last night walked into the office of the Sunday News, and after a brief exchange of words with the editor, Ad Elsherman, slapped him in the face. This was round No. 1.

The editor then arose from his seat and floored the minister with a terrific punch. Rev. Mr. Courtenay attempted to arise and was knocked unconscious by the editor. This was round No. 2 and the end of the fight.

KEEP OFF THE GRASS

Patrolman James Callan had troubles of his own Thursday in keeping people from "cutting across lots" through the court house park. Patrolman Callan's beat on the South Side caused him plenty of annoyance until he made an invention that solves the problem. He constructed nine railings of bicycles crates and placed them in front of the paths cut through the snow. The plan is working so well that the chief has approved it and similar railings will be placed on the North Side as well. These will be collected in the evenings, and any one caught off the park walks will be arrested.

HAS ANYBODY SEEN KELLY?

Has Anybody Seen Kelly? Kelly is a young man, educated, white, black, married, owned by Mr. E. H. Wilson, of Columbus, a prominent real estate dealer, and the Columbus representative of the Rural, New York, a famous publication. The reporter stands nearly 24 inches high and is a fine looking man. He is a very good looking man, about the average wearing a handsome size advertising the clothing and shoe store now going on.

All the good qualities of Kelly's Cream Balm, solid, are contained in this cream balm, which is intended for the use of the body. That it is a wonderful remedy for nasal catarrh is proven by the ever-increasing mass of testimony. It does not dry out nor burn the tender passages. It always the inflammation and goes straight to the seat of the disease, obviating the necessity of yielding in a few weeks. All congestions, including spraying tube, or puffing by Ely Bros, 56 Warren Street, New York.
